Wrong Man Taken Into Court and

Parke County Murderer Captured in a Saloon—Change of Venue Demanded
by Ex-Banker Paris.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WHITING, Ind., Oct. 10.—This afternoon, at about 4:20, train No. 2, of the Pennsylvania road, ran into an open switch, causing the engine, mail car and two Pullmans to leave the track. Two employees were killed, as follows:

HENRY WARNER, engineer.

JOHN CHRISTIE, fireman.

The accident occurred just west of the One-hundred-and-nineteenth street crossing, in the suburbs of Chicago. Three persons were injured, including conductor Breen, but none of them fatally. The fireman was buried beneath the engine and scalded to death by escaping steam. The train was composed of a mail car and nine vestibule cars. It was running but ten miles an hour. Had it been running at full speed the death toll would have been very large. The fire company was at the scene in five minutes and extinguished the rapidly-gaining flames. The track was not cleared until after 8 o'clock. There were more than four hundred passengers on the derailed train. The engine and the mail car are both total wrecks. Engineer Warner lived at Fort Wayne. Conductor Breen also resides there.

QUEER COURT BLUNDER.

The Wrong Prisoner Sentenced and Afterward Released.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ELKHART, Ind., Oct. 10.—Those connected with the two Winterbottom murders, and a very few outsiders who are "on" are amused over an act of unintentional executive clemency exercised by Judge Vanfleet yesterday. The jail is crowded almost beyond its capacity, and among the inmates up to yesterday was a young man named Wishart, who was in for a misdemeanor of considerable importance. During court yesterday Judge Vanfleet instructed Deputy Sheriff Kidder to bring in Wishart, which the deputy proceeded to do. He soon reappeared with a young man whom the Judge and everybody else supposed was the prisoner desired. The young man was told to arise, which he did, and, after the usual legal formalities, the Judge sentenced him to the penitentiary for three years, but suspended sentence during good behavior. He then looked the young man, and among other things said: "I know your father, and he is a good man," to which the prisoner bowed in acquiescence and gulped down a sob. He was then told that he was at liberty to depart, and after a parting admonition from the Judge he did so, with an activity and effectiveness that have since kept his whereabouts from being discovered. Soon after this dismissal it was found that young Wishart was still in jail, and that the fellow who had been turned out is a barber who was serving a sentence for murderously assaulting his wife. Wishart was turned loose, the barber remains at large, and whenever anyone looks Kidder in the eye and says, "I know your father," he is a good man, and slides out of sight. The Judge says nothing.

MURDERER CAPTURED.

Orville Miller Caught in a Saloon at Coville, Parke County.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., Oct. 10.—Orville Miller, who stabbed the two Winterbottom brothers at Clinton Locks, this county, Sunday, was captured and put in jail last night. Yesterday the marshal of Roseville was notified that Miller was at Coville in a saloon, and he caught the murderer. He carried a shotgun, having taken it away from a hunter in the woods. After getting the gun he went to the public highway and compelled a farmer to carry him three miles down the road. He then took to the woods. Andy Winterbottom took the son of a minister who lives at Perryville.

Last week Moses Swalm was found not guilty of murder in the first degree. Lewis Puett, the broadsword slayer, was taken to Newport Monday and his trial set for four weeks from today. The other murderer, got a continuance until next term. Public sentiment in Parke county as regards the two Winterbottoms is growing easy and restless. It is hard to tell what the outcome will be.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Oct. 10.—This morning the twelve-year-old son of William Leslie, of this city, was playing with several companions in the Ohio & Mississippi yards, when he boarded an outgoing freight train to take a ride. His right leg was cut off between the knee and the ankle, and the left thigh was badly crushed. He was taken to the office of surgeon W. N. Dr. Jackson, city health officer, stated this evening that there were nine persons at hospital No. 1 receiving treatment and five of the number are convalescent. A hospital No. 2 is twenty-seven persons, all of whom but two are able to be out of doors and are convalescents. There have been in all cases since the disease developed and sixteen deaths.

"Big" Snyder Dead.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

VINCENNES, Ind., Oct. 10.—William Snyder, a well-known sporting man, died here last night of heart disease. He came here Saturday to attend the fair. He was known to the sporting men all over the country as "Big" Snyder. He weighed 480 pounds. His remains were buried here this afternoon. A coffin had to be made to order for the body, and a piano lifter had to be used in handling it. The coffin could not be put into the hearse, and had to be hauled to the cemetery in an open wagon. Rev. J. Clark, of the Christian Church, preached the funeral sermon.

Spying Upon Pensioners.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MARION, Ind., Oct. 10.—There is something more than a vague suspicion among the inmates of the Soldiers' Home here that paid spies are engaged in hunting down pensioners at that institution. A bill was introduced a few days ago ordering an investigation of the matter, but Congressman Martin succeeded in having it referred to the invalid pensioners committee, of which he is chairman, where it is expected to sleep the sleep of death. There is a revolution in sentiment concerning pensioners among the veterans, many of whom voted for him last election.

Shot Himself in the Mouth.

BEDFORD, Ind., Oct. 10.—A report has reached here from Heltonville, seven miles east of this city, of a lover's desperate revenge that will cost his life. He called upon the lady of his choice last night, and a quarrel ensued. He followed her. He offered her a revolver, asking her at the same time to use it and kill him. This so startled the woman that she ran and screamed for assistance, whereupon he drew a weapon in his mouth and discharged it. Although death was not instantaneous, his death is momentarily expected. His name is Hays Hunter, and the woman's name is Clatha Cornett.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., Oct. 10.—The indictments against James K. and Calvin Armstrong, who left the Tipton county treasurer's office $45,000 short, were dismissed yesterday by the State's attorney because of irregularity, and, in consequence, the officers will not be tried on the embezzlement charges this term, and will succeed in giving bond the father and son must continue to lie in jail until December, at which time the grand jury convenes.

Clothing Store Closed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

BEDFORD, Ind., Oct. 10.—The Eagle clothing store of this city, was compelled to close its doors to-day by the suit of a Cincinnati firm. It is alleged that Wolf & Kaufman, formerly of Louisville, gave a mortgage on all the stock to relatives, and the attachment was issued on the ground of fraudulent conveyance. It is claimed the stock will amount to $7,000. Other claims will be filed at once, and it is doubtful whether the assets will cover liabilities.
